

SAVE THE DATE! • Monday November 2, 2009

TOWARD NEW HORIZONS:

Collaborative and Innovative Approaches to Services for Persons who are Deaf, Deafblind
and Hard of Hearing

University of Pittsburgh
William Pitt Union
8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Speakers:

Roger Williams

Director of the Division of Deaf Services, South Carolina

Laurie Hooper

Clinical Director, Community Support Program at Deaf-REACH

Lauren Lynch-Ryan

Director of Quality Improvement, Deaf-Reach, Washington, DC

Topics to Include:

- Models of excellence for community collaboration and outreach and therapeutic treatment interventions
- The expanding role of Teletherapy and the integral role of assistive technology
- Interpreters in mental health care
- The vital role of a cultural and language

Who should attend:

Therapists, rehabilitation counselors, interpreters, case managers, students in ASL and social work, consumers, advocates, care managers, educators and family members

Accommodations provided upon request

Sponsored in part through a grant from the Pennsylvania Office of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Community Care Behavioral Health Organization and Value Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania, Inc.